Important information for your Legal Wedding

In general, it is possible to be legally married in Bali and throughout Indonesia. The Tamarind Resort are here to assist with all aspects of conducting a legal wedding.

There are some important aspects to consider - a legal wedding ceremony must be held in conjunction with recognised religions by the Government of Indonesia and Balinese authorities. Recognised religions include, but may not be limited to Christian Protestant, Buddhism, Hindu and Muslim faiths. The marriage requires registration with the district Civil Registrar and the ceremony must be performed under religious rites.

The Government of Indonesia require all foreigners planning to marry in Indonesia obtain a "CNI" (Certificate of Non Impediment to Marriage) before the wedding. The CNI is essentially a letter from your Consulate or Embassy representative in Indonesia stating that there is no objection for you to get married in Indonesia.

For the Consulate to issue this letter, it is generally a requirement that each individual personally visit their Consulate to swear an oath that they are free to marry, however some countries will provide a CNI remotely. The following information will be required in order to process your marriage certificate in Indonesia:

- Passport
- Birth certificates for both parties
- Details of religious faith (e.g. baptism certificates)
- Written parental consent for any person under the age of 21
- Death certificate of former spouse (when relevant)
- Decree absolute divorce certificate (when relevant)
- Two (2) witnesses are required for your wedding
- Eight (8) photographs (6 x 4 cm) of the couple in same photo
- Photos must be of the head & shoulders only, side by side, looking straight ahead (These will be attached to your wedding certificate)
